Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company

Complaint as to billing in Chicago, Illinois.

RECOMMENDATION: Grant the Joint Motion to Dismiss this Docket, which was filed on October 18, 2004, with prejudice.

On August 18, 2003, Mary M. Ferguson filed a Complaint, in which, she alleged that after Peoples Gas Light and Coke Co. (Peoples) changed the meter to her house, it billed her and provided no explanation for the amount billed. Ms Ferguson waived her right to have this matter fully resolved within the statutory one-year period. On October 18, 2004, Peoples and Ms. Ferguson filed a Stipulation and Joint Motion to Dismiss this docket, in which, both parties stated that all matters in controversy have been settled and resolved.

It is clear that all of the issues between the parties have been resolved. This matter should be dismissed, with prejudice.
